Columbia Cross

TigerCross is part of the Midwest Collegiate Cycling Conference series and will be open to non-collegiate racers in respective categories. The collegiate series will continue the next day in STL with Bubba Cross. This is the fourth year Mizzou has hosted a 'cross race in Columbia, and we want it to be a fun and relaxed way to enjoy this growing sport in an awesome city for Collegiate riders, newbies, and freaky-fast people alike. Since college kids are poor, you won't get any awesome new wheel sets for winning, but you will get the best high five of your life and a fun race.

Sunday's racing will be held in tandem with St. Louis' infamous Bubba Cross series. Key info is that it's named after a dog on its last legs and has some very fast riders. This weekend's race is Harvest Bubba. Take a look at bigshark.com for more detailed info. The schedule below is for collegiate classes running simultaneously with non-collegiate classes.

Category	Start Time	Distance

To Bellefontaine Park: The most confusing thing about Bellefontaine Park is that there are a few of them. Anyway, to get to Bellefontaine Park head to Highway 270- East of 367 and exit South on Bellefontaine Road. Follow the road until you get to Zellweger Rd (right across from the Bethlehem Cemetary). Turn Right (West). The shelter/area we are using is the Kingsbury Shelter- and it is behind the Bellefontaine Police Station/City Hall/Miniature Golf Course. Take a look at bigshark.com for some map action.

Registration opens at 10:00 a.m. and the A and B categories are for collegiate racers only. Entry fee $13 including insurance surcharge.
